

HR Access launches HRa Suite 7.1 and strengthens the international deployment of its flagship HRa Suite 7 solution

Paris, 9 April 2009 – As part of its process of continuous development, HR Access, the international Human Resources Management software publisher and Human Resources Outsourcing service provider has strengthened its flagship solution HRa Suite 7 with the launch of its new version, HRa Suite 7.1. In addition to providing increased technological capacity, the new version will help HR Access to speed up its international development.

Enhanced functionality with HRa Suite 7.1

Recognised for its performance and efficiency in human resources management, administrative management, payroll and time management, the HRa Suite 7 solution offers a comprehensive and diverse range of functionalities for even more strategic Human Resources management.

With HRa Suite 7.1, HR Access is now offering an enhanced version, with the aim of further strengthening its talent management offering and improving the flexibility of its administration modules.

Since its launch at the end of 2007, HRa Suite 7 has attracted some 50 businesses including Nexity, La Poste, Bouygues Construction, SNCF, AP-HP and Air Liquide in France, CAF in Spain and the National Bank of Abu Dhabi in the Middle East. Thanks to its HR know-how, HR Access's sector-specific expertise and the innovative technology it is based on, the HRa Suite 7 solution, available in seven languages, will soon be managing over one million employees throughout the world.

Broader geographical coverage

With HRa Suite 7.1, HR Access is aiming to sustain its international growth and development.

Already available in France, the United Kingdom and Spain, the new version will initially be rolled out to five new countries: Germany, Morocco, Belgium, Italy and Switzerland.

"We are proud of the success of our HRa Suite 7 solution, which is a key factor in our further development and current growth. The launch of HRa Suite 7.1 confirms the maturity of our offering and our ability to extend our know-how to an international area," explains Michel Picaud, President & CEO, HR Access EMEA. "In order to support our clients in deploying their Human Resources management strategies, we feel it is essential to continually enhance our offering to that it responds ever-more effectively to their needs and adapts to their changing circumstances."
